LODGE ROOM NOTES

I. O. O. F.

The project of the members of the I. O. O. F. of this city to secure new quarters has taken definite shape, as at a joint meeting held Sunday afternoon a committee was appointed to confer with Hinks & Johnson relative to securing the upper floor of the new block this firm is to erect this spring at Cannon and Broad streets. The committee comprises Wilbur Sanford for S. H. Harris lodge; Thomas Forsythe for Pequonnock lodge; W. H. Benedict for Arcanum lodge; and Judge E. P. Noble for Adolphian lodge. This committee will look into the new location of the rooms, and will endeavor to see what the firm will do for them in the arranging of the rooms for lodge purposes, what rent will be charged and special elevator service for the exclusive use of the members of the lodges.

Funduschaft Rebekah lodge, I. O. O. F., appointed a committee at their meeting to arrange the details for the celebration of the thirty-fifth anniversary, which will be celebrated at the next meeting on Monday, Feb. 8. The third degree was worked on six candidates at the meeting of Samuel H. Harris lodge, I. O. O. F., and four applications were received.

F. O. F. A.
Two candidates were initiated and two applications received at a meeting of Court, Burnham, F. O. F. A., received five applications towards the class initiation they are planning to hold during the last of March. The Court has organized its degree team in anticipation of the event.

L. O. F. G. A. R.
Lincoln Circle, L. O. F. G. A. R., received one application and accepted to have a tea party Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Albert Trickey, 140 DeForest avenue. The circle will attend the Presbyterian church Sunday, Jan. 25, to hear the address on Abraham Lincoln to be delivered by Rev. J. M. Richardson.

Q. U. A. M.
Bridgeport Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., received three applications and elected one new member. This council will initiate a class of eight members on the occasion of its next meeting.

DR. PETERS HERE TONIGHT.

Moving Picture Lecture on Italy by New York Clergyman.

Tonight Dr. Madison C. Peters gives his lecture on "Italy" in Warner hall. Dr. Peters is known in Bridgeport as a speaker of great interest. The lecture tonight coming just at this time when Italy has been the scene of such a stirring and very timely and has added interest. After such a description of Italy and the Italian people at home, one has a much added interest in the country. Dr. Peters' descriptions are very real, it is next to traveling in the country itself to listen to him.

Not only will the lecture be worth hearing, but the moving picture illustrations will add a great deal to the evening's travel. Dr. Peters has many beautiful slides of the country. The association should be praised for making the opportunity for the people of Bridgeport to hear Dr. Peters in this lecture tonight.

Accidents will happen, but the best-regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

OUR REVENGEFUL SENATORS

But May Not Knife Officials in Mr. Hill's District.

Other Advances Say Postmaster Marigold and Koraback Are Slated for Treatment of the Allen Type.

Washington, Jan. 26.—It is expected that nobody will be appointed to succeed George I. Allen as postmaster at Middletown, Conn., until after President-elect Taft is inaugurated. It is said that President Roosevelt is in favor of Allen and nobody else, and will probably leave the matter to his successor. Judge Taft is a close friend of Representative Hill and it is said he will not withdraw his support from Allen, as a Hill man.

Representative Hill says he knows nothing about the reported purpose of Senators Bulkeley and Brandegee to avenge themselves further against federal officials or others who stood by him in the recent senatorial contest. Neither of the senators has admitted his intention to carry out such a policy, but there is good reason to believe that they will do so. It is said, however, that they will carry their enmity towards Mr. Hill to the point of knife postmasters in his district who come up for reappointment.

It is said that they feel very angry about some others not in Mr. Hill's district, who went out of their way, as the senators see it, to oppose their interests. The terms of some of these officials expire before a great while. The Waterbury "American's" Washington correspondent has it that among those slated for the same treatment as that handed out to Allen are Collector Robert O. Eaton, Postmaster Marigold of Bridgeport and Postmaster Koraback of Canaan, Representative Hill's manager. And there are others, the correspondent says.

ALIVE IN RUINS 27 DAYS
Aged Man Rescued at Messina Weeps Only for Destruction of City.

Rome, Jan. 26.—A man 80 years old was discovered in the ruins at Messina Sunday. His cries were casually heard by a soldier who together with a number of his comrades, worked for hours to free him. When ultimately he was rescued and saw the ruined city the old man wept, unmindful of his almost miraculous escape. He had to be forced to take nourishment. He had lived on rotten vegetables and herbs he found in the cellar where he was entombed. He suffered greatly from thirst. The inhabitants of Delianova, Calabria, have made a violent protest against the delay in building huts for them. The meeting assumed a threatening character, and troops were summoned to disperse it. A fight ensued in which seven soldiers and civilians were injured.

RIVERS AND HARBORS.
Connecticut Improvements Under Way to be Provided For.

Washington, Jan. 26.—The decision of the river and harbor committee to have only a limited waterway bill this year, for emergencies, maintenance, surveys, etc., does not mean that the rivers and harbors of Connecticut will not be taken care of. On the contrary, an appropriation of $100,000 for the harbor is expected to be included in the sundry civil appropriation bill, to continue improvements there under a contract now in force. The river and harbor committee is considering estimates for other work aggregating about $20,000,000. The estimates include the following items for Connecticut: Bridgeport harbor, maintenance, $10,000; Milford harbor, maintenance, $2,000; Norwalk harbor, maintenance, $8,000; harbors at Five Mile River, Stamford, Southington, Greenwich and West and Saugatuck River, $83,311; Housatonic River, $41,000. As the bill to be reported by the river and harbor committee will not carry over $100,000, the projects named will each be allotted about half of the amount called for, or else the most worthy projects will be looked after by the department and others will have to wait until the next large river and harbor bill is passed.

Send Out Your Wash.
Save your health, strength and patience by having your flat pieces done by us. When you figure it up you will be money in pocket and save a lot of energy by sending out your washing. It is hardly worth the annoyance of wash day at home not counting the labor when you can get the work done so reasonable here. If you send us your flat pieces you get rid of the hardest part of the work. We do it at a small expense and better than you can have it done home. The Crawford Laundry, corner Fairfield avenue and Courtland street, Tel. 2810 and the wagon will call for your work.

Clays in Abundance.
Thousands of clay pipes are now in the stock of Eckler & Co., 968 Main street, and it is surprising what a demand there is for them. Only a week ago a showing of this make of pipe was placed in the windows of the store and hundreds of them have been disposed of, showing that there is still large following for the original pipe. These clays are the best made. They are plain and fancy in design and varying in shape. The pipe making is one of the best and coolest of smokes. Try them. You can get them at either of Eckler & Co.'s stores, 968 or 874 Main street. All the best grades of cigars, tobacco and cigarettes on hand at all times.
